

Keys to Hearing Healthcare Success

An experienced, compassionate, and competent healthcare professional

Ongoing follow-up care and support throughout a patient's entire hearing-care journey

Access to quality hearing technology to meet any patient's unique hearing needs

Out of pocket expense for patient and value for dollars spent

Online

In person professional consultation not available

Most often average or below average hearing care provider

Most likely to find experienced, compassionate hearing care provider

Follow-up and support not available

Limited access to follow-up and support

Typically provide quality follow-up and support

Technology is very basic at best (buyer beware)

Technology is basic to mid level

Most offer basic through premium technology

Relatively low out of pocket expense, but poor value

Low to moderate out of pocket expense

Relatively high out of pocket expense

Echo Hearing Center

Superior personalized care from an experienced professional with a patient centered approach

Unlimited, ongoing care and support to ensure long-term hearing healthcare success

Access to all levels of quality hearing technology recommended as appropriate to each individual's hearing needs

Low prices on top quality technology to provide the best possible value for each patient

